REASONS FOR CLAIM AND DETAILS

Explain what happened, including where and when. Then explain how much money you are claiming or what goods you want returned.

If you are relying on any documents, you MUST attach copies to the claim. If evidence is lost or unavailable, you MUST explain why it is not attached.

What happened? Where? When?

Our booking reference is KY8X2E.

We were supposed to fly to Las Vegas on March 12th on AC8530 leaving Thunder Bay at 6:00 am arriving in Toronto at 7:41 am. on March 12 2016

We were then connecting and flying from Toronto to Las Vegas on AC1851 departing at 9:10 am and arriving in Las Vegas at 11:10 am.

We left Thunder Bay and arrived in Toronto on time. We then sat on the plane for just over 1 hour. We were told that we would be waiting on the plane for 10 minutes, which was followed by another 10 minutes. This happened over and over again. Since I travel a lot, I basically assumed that we were going to miss our connection, which we did....

While still on our plane, I got an email from Air Canada with our new flights. Which had us stuck in Toronto for 7 hours and then have us fly to Calgary and then connect to Las Vegas, arriving after 9 pm pacific time, approximately 10 hours late.

While stuck on the plane for over an hour in Toronto I was searching for alternative flights to Las Vegas, since we had tickets for Celine Dion's final concert before a two month break in Las Vegas that evening We showed Air Canada attendants, that there were several alternative ways that they could get us to Las Vegas in time for Celine Dion's final concert. No one at the Air Canada service counter was willing to help us including the head manager, even though we showed them that there were flights available.

We were told that we could not get on any flights since the seats were in business class. So the end result is that we lost a complete day of our five day holiday. In addition, we were not able to use our tickets to the show. The Celine Dion concert was one of the main reasons for our trip.

This was not weather related in any way. We are seeking damages for loss Ticket price plus the inconvenience and loss of a days vacation.

We are seeking compensation under article 19 of the Montreal Convention. We would also like to site Article 26 and also article 33 (1)

Plaintiffs

AIR CANADA

Defendant

STATEMENT OF DEFENCE

1. Unless expressly admitted elsewhere in this Defence, Air Canada expressly denies each and every allegation contained in the Claim as against it and puts the Plaintiffs to the strict proof thereof;
2. Air Canada is an air carrier specialized in the carriage of passengers, baggage and cargo and duly authorized to operate its activities in the Canadian and international air transportation field;
3. Air Canada entered into a contract of carriage by air with the Plaintiffs for international carriage on flights AC8530 and AC1851 from Thunder Bay, Canada, to Las Vegas, United States, on March 12, 2016, and returning from Las Vegas to Thunder Bay on March 17, 2016;
4. Flight AC8530 having been delayed, Plaintiffs missed their connecting flight from Toronto to Las Vegas. Air Canada rebooked them on the next available flight to Las Vegas the same day via Calgary;
5. Air Canada pleads and relies on the General Conditions of the contract of carriage between the Plaintiffs and Air Canada as contained in the passenger ticket. Air Canada further relies on the Terms and Conditions of the contract of carriage between the Plaintiffs and Air Canada, including the terms incorporated into the contract of carriage and contained in Air Canada's Tariff published and made available in accordance with regulations under the Canada Transportation Act, S.C. 1996, c. C-10;
6. Air Canada pleads that its International Tariff states that Schedules are subject to change without notice. Times and aircraft type shown in timetables or elsewhere are approximate and not guaranteed, and form no part of the contract.

7. Air Canada further pleads the Plaintiffs were on a journey of international carriage by air, departing from Canada and returning to Canada with an agreed stopping place in the United States, and that, accordingly, the rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the Montreal Convention (the "Convention"), which is an international treaty incorporated into the laws of Canada by the Carriage by Air Act, R.S.C. 1985, Chapter C-26;
8. Air Canada pleads that the Convention provides the exclusive and sole cause of action and the only remedy in the circumstances pleaded. Furthermore, the Convention only provides for economic loss or physical injury damages. This excludes claims for moral damages or loss of enjoyment;
9. Air Canada denies that the Plaintiffs suffered any losses/damages and puts the Plaintiffs to the strict proof thereof;
10. Air Canada pleads that if it is liable for any damages, which is specifically denied, the Plaintiffs' Claim is subject to the restrictions and limitations of liability in accordance with the Carriage by Air Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-26;
11. In the further alternative, if the Plaintiffs suffered damages, which is specifically denied, Air Canada pleads that the damages sought by the Plaintiffs are excessive, too remote and were not caused by it;
12. Air Canada therefore submits that this action be dismissed as against it with costs.
